BOB LIVINGSTON ALERTS

The Democratic Party is the party of tolerance. We are told this with regularity. After all, the party tolerates — promotes, actually — deviant lifestyles, the murder of babies in the womb, legalized theft by government, general sloth by the populace, terrorists, big government, coercion, mob violence and thuggishness (workers unions), central planning (socialism and Marxism), and crony capitalism (which is essentially fascism).

What it doesn't tolerate is free speech. In fact, it goes to great lengths — even engaging in criminal activity — and great expense to ensure that dissenting views are squelched, particularly the views from the right.

The progressives' ideas of unlimited government and unlimited spending can't stand up to arguments against smaller government and liberty. So the leftists resort to thuggery, intimidation and the courts to silence their detractors. Trump supporters at the Capitol learned from the best.

That includes Susan Rosenberg. Have you heard of her? She's now called an "activist" and a "writer" by the lamestream media.

What she really is, is a domestic terrorist.

Scott Walter of the Capital Research Center wrote: "Rosenberg, who started out as a member of the 1960s revolutionary group Weather Underground, graduated into even more violent, and arguably successful, forms of terrorism in the 1970s and 1980s — including bombings at an FBI field office in Staten Island, the Navy Yard Officers' Club in Washington, D.C., and even the U.S. Capitol building."

Yes, in 1983, Rosenberg didn't protest at the Capitol and walk through a hall with a lectern or sit at Nancy Pelosi's desk. Rosenberg set off a huge bomb inside the U.S. Capitol building. She was caught in 1984 while unloading from her car and into a New Jersey storage unit hundreds of pounds of dynamite along with myriad guns. She went to prison for 16 years.

She was not a "political prisoner" as the Left would have you believe.

In the present day, she served as vice chair of the board of directors for Thousand Currents, an organization that provides fundraising and fiscal sponsorship for none other than... Black Lives Matter.

The left's embracing — and funding — of convicted domestic terrorist Rosenberg is eerily similar to its embracing of convicted bomber Bill Ayers.

Ayers groomed President Barack Obama and launched his political career. Yet his association with a man who, also as part of the Weather Underground, set off numerous bombs — including one that may have killed a San Francisco police officer — did not hurt Obama's standing in the least.

That the left and Democrats would even embrace convicted domestic terrorists like Rosenberg — and, in fact, invite them into their inner circle and encourage their tactics — demonstrates that the progressives who have taken over the party are true enemies of America.

Now, president-elect Biden wants to use his (no)Justice Department to strengthen Obama's idea of a domestic terrorism czar, along with a whole department to battle the newest greatest threat — behind nonexistent global warming — to America: the white Christian male gun-owning liberty lover.

Soon after Obama took office, in 2009, the Department of Homeland Security issued a report titled "Rightwing Extremism: Current Economic and Political Climate Fueling Resurgence in Radicalization and Recruitment." Possible terrorists include people opposed to President Obama; those upset by the high unemployment rate; supporters of gun rights; those who believe in conspiracy theories involving a coming martial law declaration and the creation of detention camps; those who stockpile food, ammunition and weapons in anticipation of a collapse; military veterans; and Christians.

As the Washington Examiner points out, The Domestic Terrorism Prevention Act, "first passed by the House in September of last year, is gaining traction again. It would create 'dedicated domestic terrorism offices within the Department of Homeland Security, the Department of Justice, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation to analyze and monitor domestic terrorist activity and require the Federal Government to take steps to prevent domestic terrorism,' according to the bill's language."

The target is always liberty-loving Americans. Also, the powers-that-shouldn't be devote extra scrutiny to Christians who believe the Bible is God's word, Christian "fundamentalists" (whatever those are), Americans who believe the country was founded on the principles of liberty and individual freedom (it was) and those who believe the Constitution stands as the law of the land (it does, even though it's now ignored).

Biden will only continue to advocate for the notion that if you are white, or

Christian, own guns, believe the Constitution is the law of the land and not what a majority of a group of nine robe-wearing Satanists say the law is, oppose oppressive totalitarian government, advocate for low taxes and/or are against the Federal Reserve, etc., then you are a domestic terrorist worthy of indefinite detention or worse.

How have we come to this point, that free Americans could be viewed as terroristic enemies in the very nation their forefathers created? Part of the answer is that America has been subjected to a long-term, clever process of demoralization and destabilization from within, as occurred on a more speedy schedule in South Africa.

Another part of the answer is to be found in the fact that the two-party system has been compromised and subverted. Both the Republican "big tent" strategy and the Democratic "diversity" appeal are actually the same, and they are used for justifying universal religion that is secular on its face but universalist in its origins.

It is utterly unacceptable to we who love liberty that the two parties have conspired to destroy the Constitution and bring the United States into a totalitarian New World Order. In the last 12 years, the Obama presidency, the Republican-majority Congress and the black-robed U.S. judiciary have combined to cut back constitutional and civil liberties more than any other comparable period in history. The federal government is a Bigger Brother than ever and its two busy hands are the Republican and Democratic parties...

Yours for the truth,

Bob Livingston
